Electric excitement surged the halls of Westbury High School during the week of October 21-25, more commonly known as Bellaire Week.

A surprising feat performed by the Rebel Guards was noted and acclaimed as they recovered Johnny Reb and brought him safely home — from Lamar, not Bellaire! Other activities that occurred included the annual Pep Rally at Godwin Park and Pep Rally in the auditorium. The week was highlighted by a daring escapade by the Westbury C.A.F. Flight Crew.

◀ John Couch, Mike Sellers, and Robert Kibler receive recognition.

On the night of October 24, 1974, streaking became a thing of the past. The new mode was from the air. It was a low-level flight, but a high-level prank that won the hearts of the police and the press. Naturally, Citadel had a photographer on board as the plane swooped low over Bellaire High, as it evaded a helicopter, and as it landed at Hobby. We also had a photographer in the car on the way to the station house, and later behind bars, and the next day at a pep rally, where all took their places in history. And that's the way it was, Bellaire Week 1974.

3. Here's an actual photo of the Westbury C.A.F. flight crew on the night of the daring raid. Note the tension, the drama of this moment.

4. Here's a member of the county constabulary responding to the quip, "Search me!" which issued from the pilot's mouth when he asked, "Is that any way to use toilet paper?"

This year the Bellaire Game was also Homecoming.

The two events packed together into one week were almost too much for Westbury to bear. We lost the game, but the outcome of a Homecoming game has never been all that important. What was a real kick in the head, though, was having to sit on the visitor's side of the field at our own Homecoming! Most people, however, just sighed and said, "It figures."

It may have felt like summer to few, but the atmosphere in the halls of Westbury made it apparent it was Christmas Time.

To start the season off on the right foot Wolfe Nursery donated a Christmas tree, which decorated the cafeteria annex. When chorus members weren't singing in Mrs. Smith's Christmas Program they were prancing the halls in costumes as reindeer and snowmen. With all this and more the holiday was no less than joyous.

The agony of defeat and the sweet smell of success rampaged yearlong in the hearts and minds of Westbury's student body. The Burns Awards, "E"'s in conduct, and cleaning the smoking area, are rewards which the administration bestows upon us. However, many feats of enduring stupidity went unnoticed by so many, that, in order to shed light on how great their irrelevance really is,

The Dubious Achievement Awards of 1975 (yay)

recognizes the following:

"The gangway I think I'm gonna sneeze Award" was received by the Rent-a-Human Pyramid-Company, for their 8-day vigil at Colt Stadium for the March of Dimes.

"The Give Me the Deed to Your Ranch Award" in an effort to raise funds for a case of Eddie Bean's duck down sweatsocks, the track team attempts to hold up a train.

▲ "The How Does an Orphan Hold His Licker? Award" goes to the Westbury Tongue Club for winning the Texas open Charm-Pop lickathon.

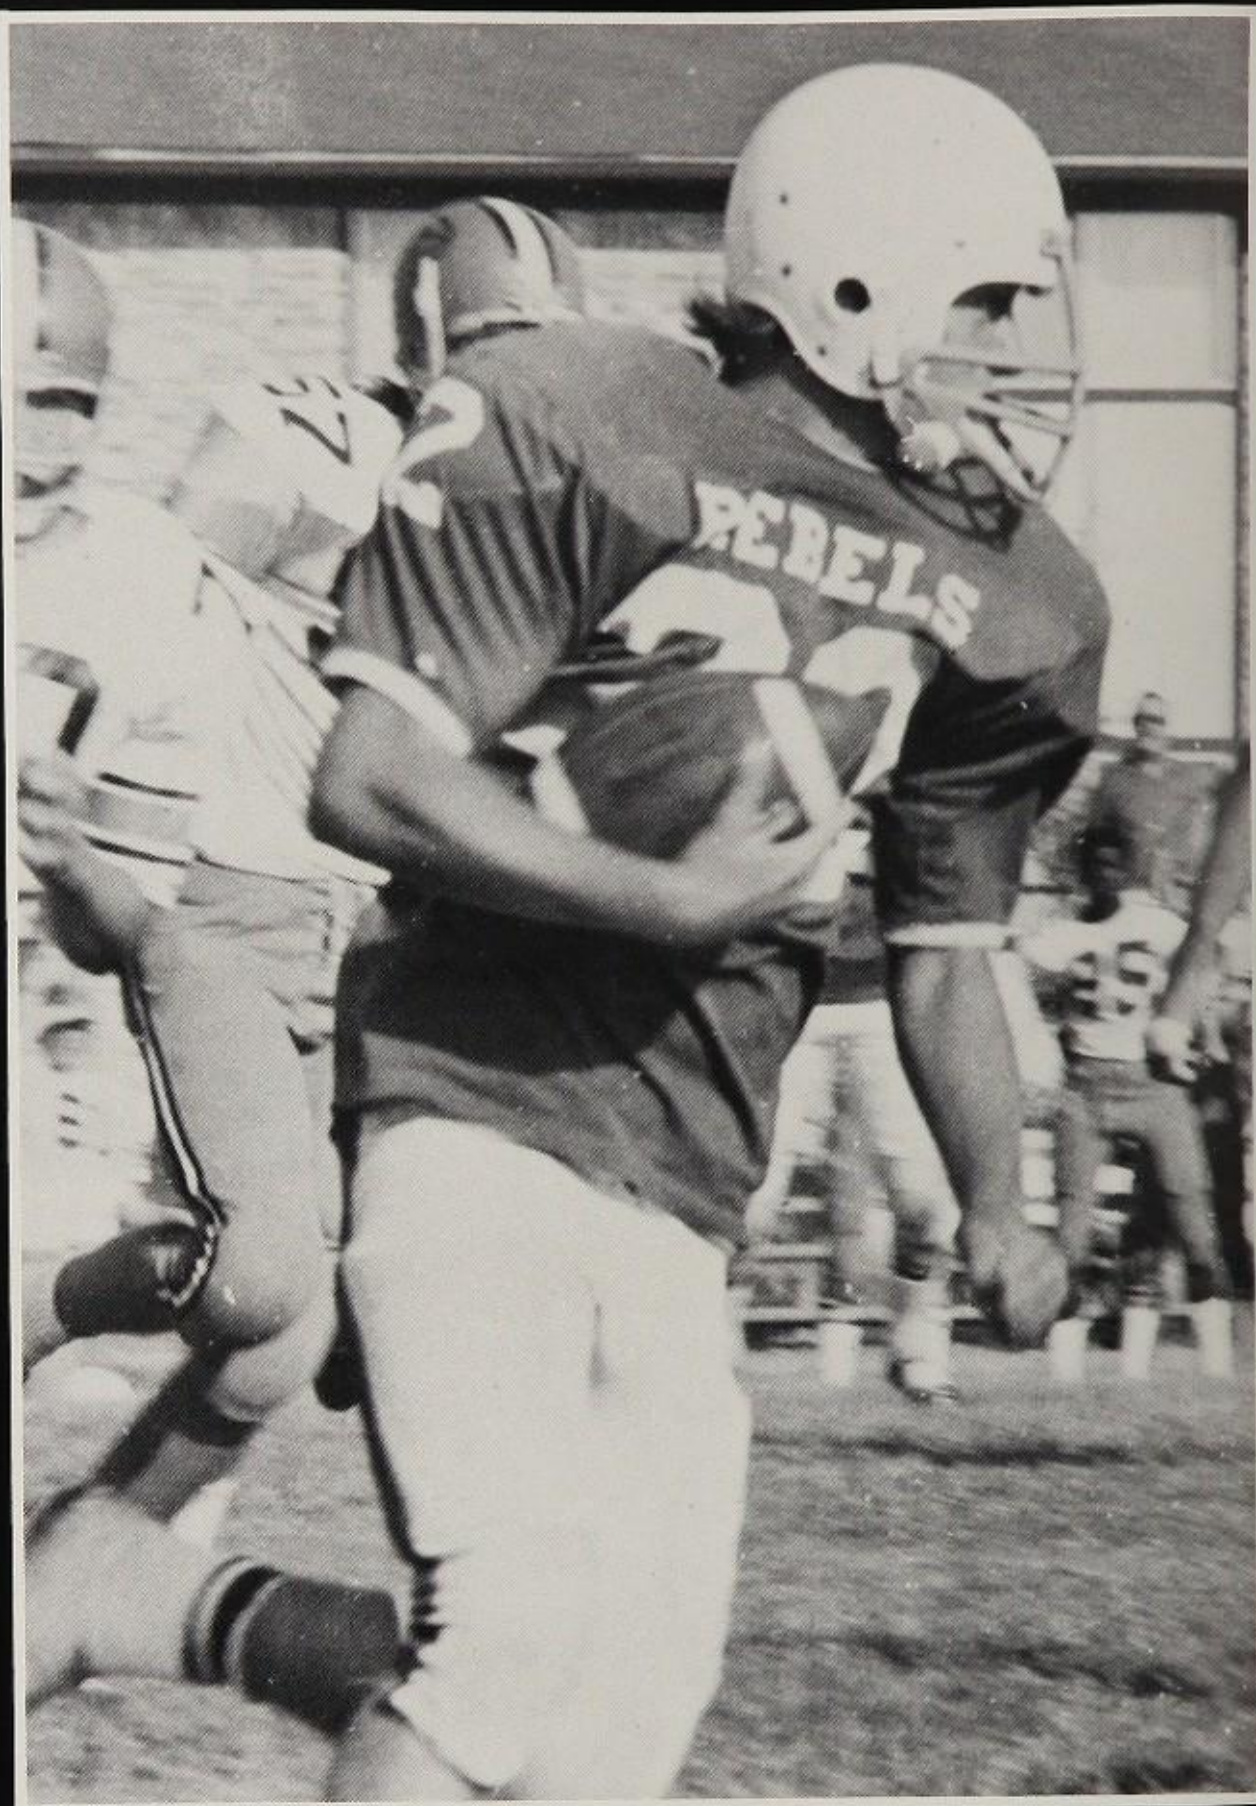

▼ "The Lookout it's Starting to Tick Award" A bomb, left unattended by unscrupulous racketeers, is disposed of by Westbury's courageous bomb squad.

It was a rough season for the

J.V. Football

team, but they were strong. They worked extra hard to overcome the problem of being so small, so everyone got a piece of the action. Of course, it wasn't a perfect season, but the team ended it third in district.

To the casual observer, a 0-28 season may seem like a perfect record, but this year's team didn't call it perfection. They called it consistency and then went home and wept. Ordinarily, you win a few and lose a few — but this year's team broke new ground. If there is J. V. Basketball next year, maybe they can play at least an ordinary season.

J.V. Basketball

This year's Foosball winner is the winning all the games they played. Actually, those fun-loving boys placed third over-all in District competition, doing it with a record of 13-8. Players who could be called "outstanding" were Bill Penman and Richard Guzman, who placed second in doubles competition. "Outstanding" only partially describes the efforts and the results of those efforts made by the team.

Boys Tennis Team,

When they write the history books, (and we are, you know), the words chosen to describe the works of Coach John Crain's predicts that next year will be just as successful as this year has been. All of the members of the team are within the city limits, but next year the team plans to make trips out of town.

Westbury's first

Girl's Swim Team

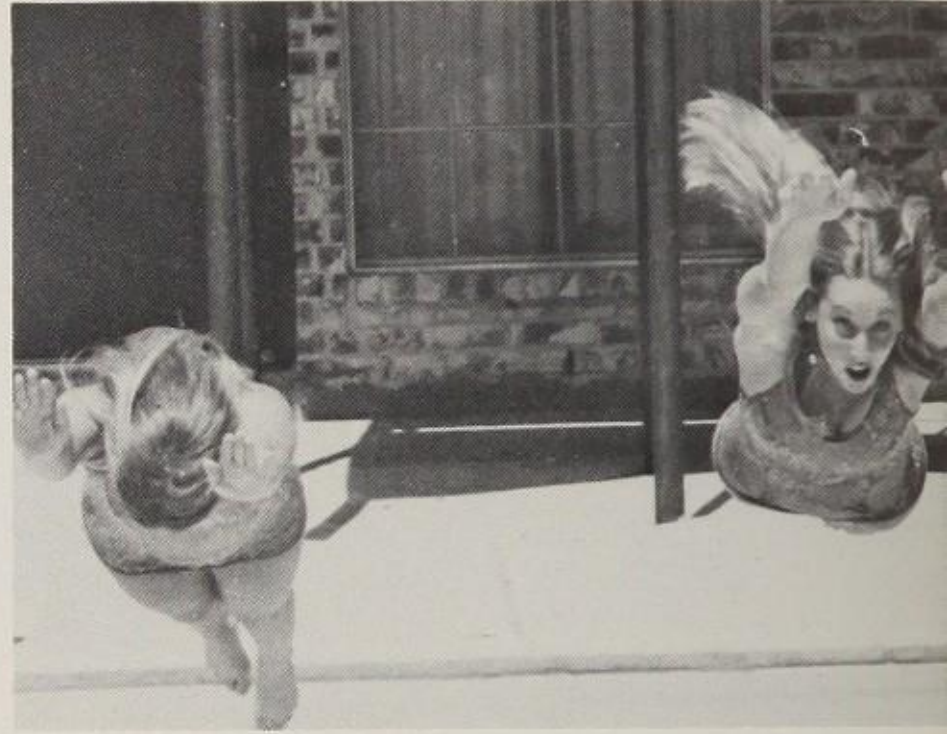

had a very successful year. The team won three out of four dual meets and went to the Cy-Fair Invitational. The team then went on to Regionals where Sandra Shields, Cindy Strait, Marla Tamble, and Carol Berry qualified for the 400 free-style relays.

Under the leadership of Brad Wakeman, the accomplished a number of things. Besides sponsoring the Homecoming Dance and the Blue Ball Dance, they raised money for the parking lot, bought four speakers for the radio station in the annex, and ran all elections. During the year, the council had poor-boy sales and sold balloons at football games. They ended the year by having a banquet at Wyatt's cafeteria.

To help pay for the prom, they held bake sales and carnation sales. The cabinet collected the annual senior dues, made decisions on a cap and gown company, selected an announcement, and planned for Commencement. All these efforts brought a great prom and a successful Commencement.

The list of activities for Westbury's for school year 1974-75 is long and impressive. In the fall there was induction of new members, followed by some in-costume stunting at Texas Children's Hospital for Halloween. Later, Thanksgiving and Christmas were observed with visitations to Golden Age Manor and the assembly of a $50 food basket for the needy.

Anchor Club

The group put on a safety skit for the National Child Care Center next door, sponsored an Easter Egg Hunt at Calvary Mission Home, and collected for M.S. May saw the annual banquet and installation of new officers. Anchor Club is an all-girl service organization.

Under the leadership of president Tod Hammand, this year's made great progress in providing service to the school and community. During the fall and winter months, the club worked in close cooperation with March of Dimes and provided manpower for several March of Dimes projects including the Miles for Children Walk and the Halloween Haunted House. In December, the club again collected Christmas baskets of record number and size for underprivileged children of Missouri City. Members also assisted in the Diabetes Foundation Bike-a-thon and sophomore orientation. Once again the annual Faculty-Varsity Basketball game was sponsored, this being a victorious year for the faculty.

Key Club

There is a haven for students of Spanish, a place where Texans and real Spaniards will not bother or molest.

Spanish Club

kept that "haven" on the move this year. Los Tios Mexican Restaurant was the site of their initiation of new officers and their Pan-American Day celebration. The group picnicked at Bayland Park and skated at Sharpstown Center. Somewhere they had a bake sale, and at year's end they had a banquet at Fondren Park Swimming Pool. Most of the time, however, operations were centered in Room 216, where the walls depict scenes of the Spanish countryside.

An astoundingly large group of three people gathered in the fall to make plans for the Medical Careers Club.

Things got off to a slow start, but being future doctors and nurses they decided to have patience. Finally, during the second six weeks, the members participated in the Westbury Hospital Disaster Drill. Students played the roles of victims in a staged tornado at Westbury, thus giving the doctors at Westbury Hospital a chance to practice for similar disasters. Whether the students benefited similarly is debatable, but a good time was had by all.

Smiles above and beyond the call of duty adorned the Rebel sport events when the attended. So what if they were forced to go! They had a blast up in those boyless, ROTC-guarded stands. During half-time at the football games they saw to it that the spectators heard the drummers drumming, fifers fifing, and buglers bugling. When games were being played, they let everyone know that they were around by yelling with the cheerleaders. Even when the chips, or scores were down, the voices of the Rebelettes were up.

It seems this year that members of the staff took great strides forward in the never ending search for journalistic excellence. Taking polls and surveys of every description, ranging from the erudite, expounding the reasons and rhymes of new rules; plus superficial interviews with knowledgeable students and teachers concerning the cafeteria slop and the United States position in Indochina.

Producing the periodical was only half the battle — selling it was pure joy. Many thought a nickel was highway robbery — The rotters! Memorable covers were Nicky Polydoros driving caricatures of our favorite assistant principals and more colorful teachers. Students rebelled and teachers yelled and the newspaper was there, recording every moment for posterity's sake.

Houston school district students have ranked high among the more than 2,000 delegates at the Texas Association of Distributive Education Clubs of America. From those 2,000 delegates Lorrie McKim, a junior here at Westbury was elected 1975-76 D.E.C.A. State President. She is the first female who has earned this honor in recent years.

Another outstanding student is Cindy Rapp, who not only was Vice-President of D.E.C.A. here at Westbury, but she was also elected to the office of Area III Secretary at the State Conference held in San Antonio.

▲ Lorrie McKim — President.

▼ Ms. Huggett.

▼ Cindy Rapp — Vice President.

The Westbury Chapter of the Office Education Association

was active, as usual, in school and community projects. They visited Golden Age Manor, Texas Institute for Rehabilitation and Research, and other places in the community. Along with these activities, they had a Continental Breakfast for the teachers and custodians and a coffee for their Advisory Committee. Each month VOE placed 16 dozen homemade cookies in teachers' lounges in honor of teachers' birthdays. Their school projects committee cleaned the parking lot and painted a teachers' lounge. To end the year, they had an Awards Banquet recognizing all who have helped VOE.

know why I want a transfer!

Accepting all the credit for the good pictures and all the blame for the bad,

The Photographers

live lives of quiet desperation. "Judy and Violet, Girl Photographers," Burt Bachrach, the kid who wasn't weaned, and Peter Sellers, resident adventurer — all huddled in the dark for the magic moment when the paper and the chemicals turned to steak and brew. "Images!" was the cry whenever anything worked. Nobody on the staff worked later or longer than these strange characters.

▲ My hair is in coolers, or Prom Preview.

▲ Alan lives but never learns!

▲ What, no violets?

▲ Sparkle Farkle, eat your heart out.

In many ways, it was a record-breaking year for Westbury's foremost yearbook staff,

The Citadel Mob.

This year more and grainier photos were accepted at later times out of more desperation than ever before. More of those pictures were lost, mislaid, or smoked than ever, and more good ideas went down the drain because of lack of time than anyone cares to think about. To say that the staff operated from Room 117 is accurate, perhaps. That it, they were never actually in Room 117 — they were merely FROM Room 117. "My kingdom for staffer!" was a cry heard often as YB wandered about searching for his business manager or his Orgs editor. When the staff was on duty, however, you could bet there was a deadline in the works. Then things got serious, and desperation pulled work from all aboard. And a good time was had by all.

▲ I just love to mash carrots. Terry Gerber.

▲ Why does YB like me? Susan Kress.

▲ Little Miss Muffett refuses to rough it! Jamie Farr.

▲ Well, if that's the only picture of Mrs. Lodge, print it!

▲ The way we were. Jackie Ferrara.

1975 Citadel Staff

▲ Nancy Friedman, lost on the left; Janet Lacy, Dana Smith with Tab, Mike Sellers below, Billy Smith in rare appearance, Susan Kress atop Amy Bannister, Sandy Gunn aimed at the world, Karen Batte cropped square, Vicki Lowery covering up, Gwen Ferrara askew, Julie Buerlot, Paula Hall, Karl Jones, Eva Walters kneeling by Jamie Farr, Cindy Morton below Nancy's Frame, Cynthia Editor, Cindy McCormick reaping, Diane Gandy by Jim Frazier who is holding his breath, Alan Bachrach shadowed by Stephan Rubin, and Judy and Violet, Girl Photographers.

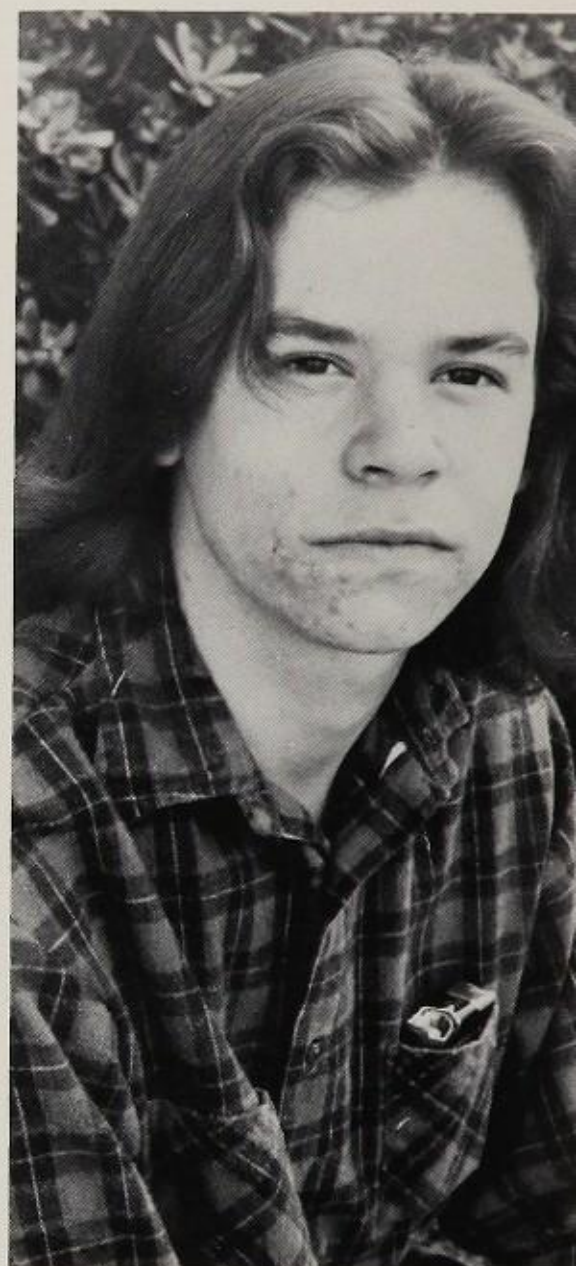

1975 Editors

▲ Snap it! Cindy McCormick.

▲ Going quackers. Terri Mitchell.

▲ A wet bird does not fly by night. Jim Frazier.

▲ One, two, and three in the great Fried Egg Slip-Off. Vicki Lowery, Gwen Ferrara, Cynthia Becker.

▲ Layout is a naughty word. Gwen and Cynthia.

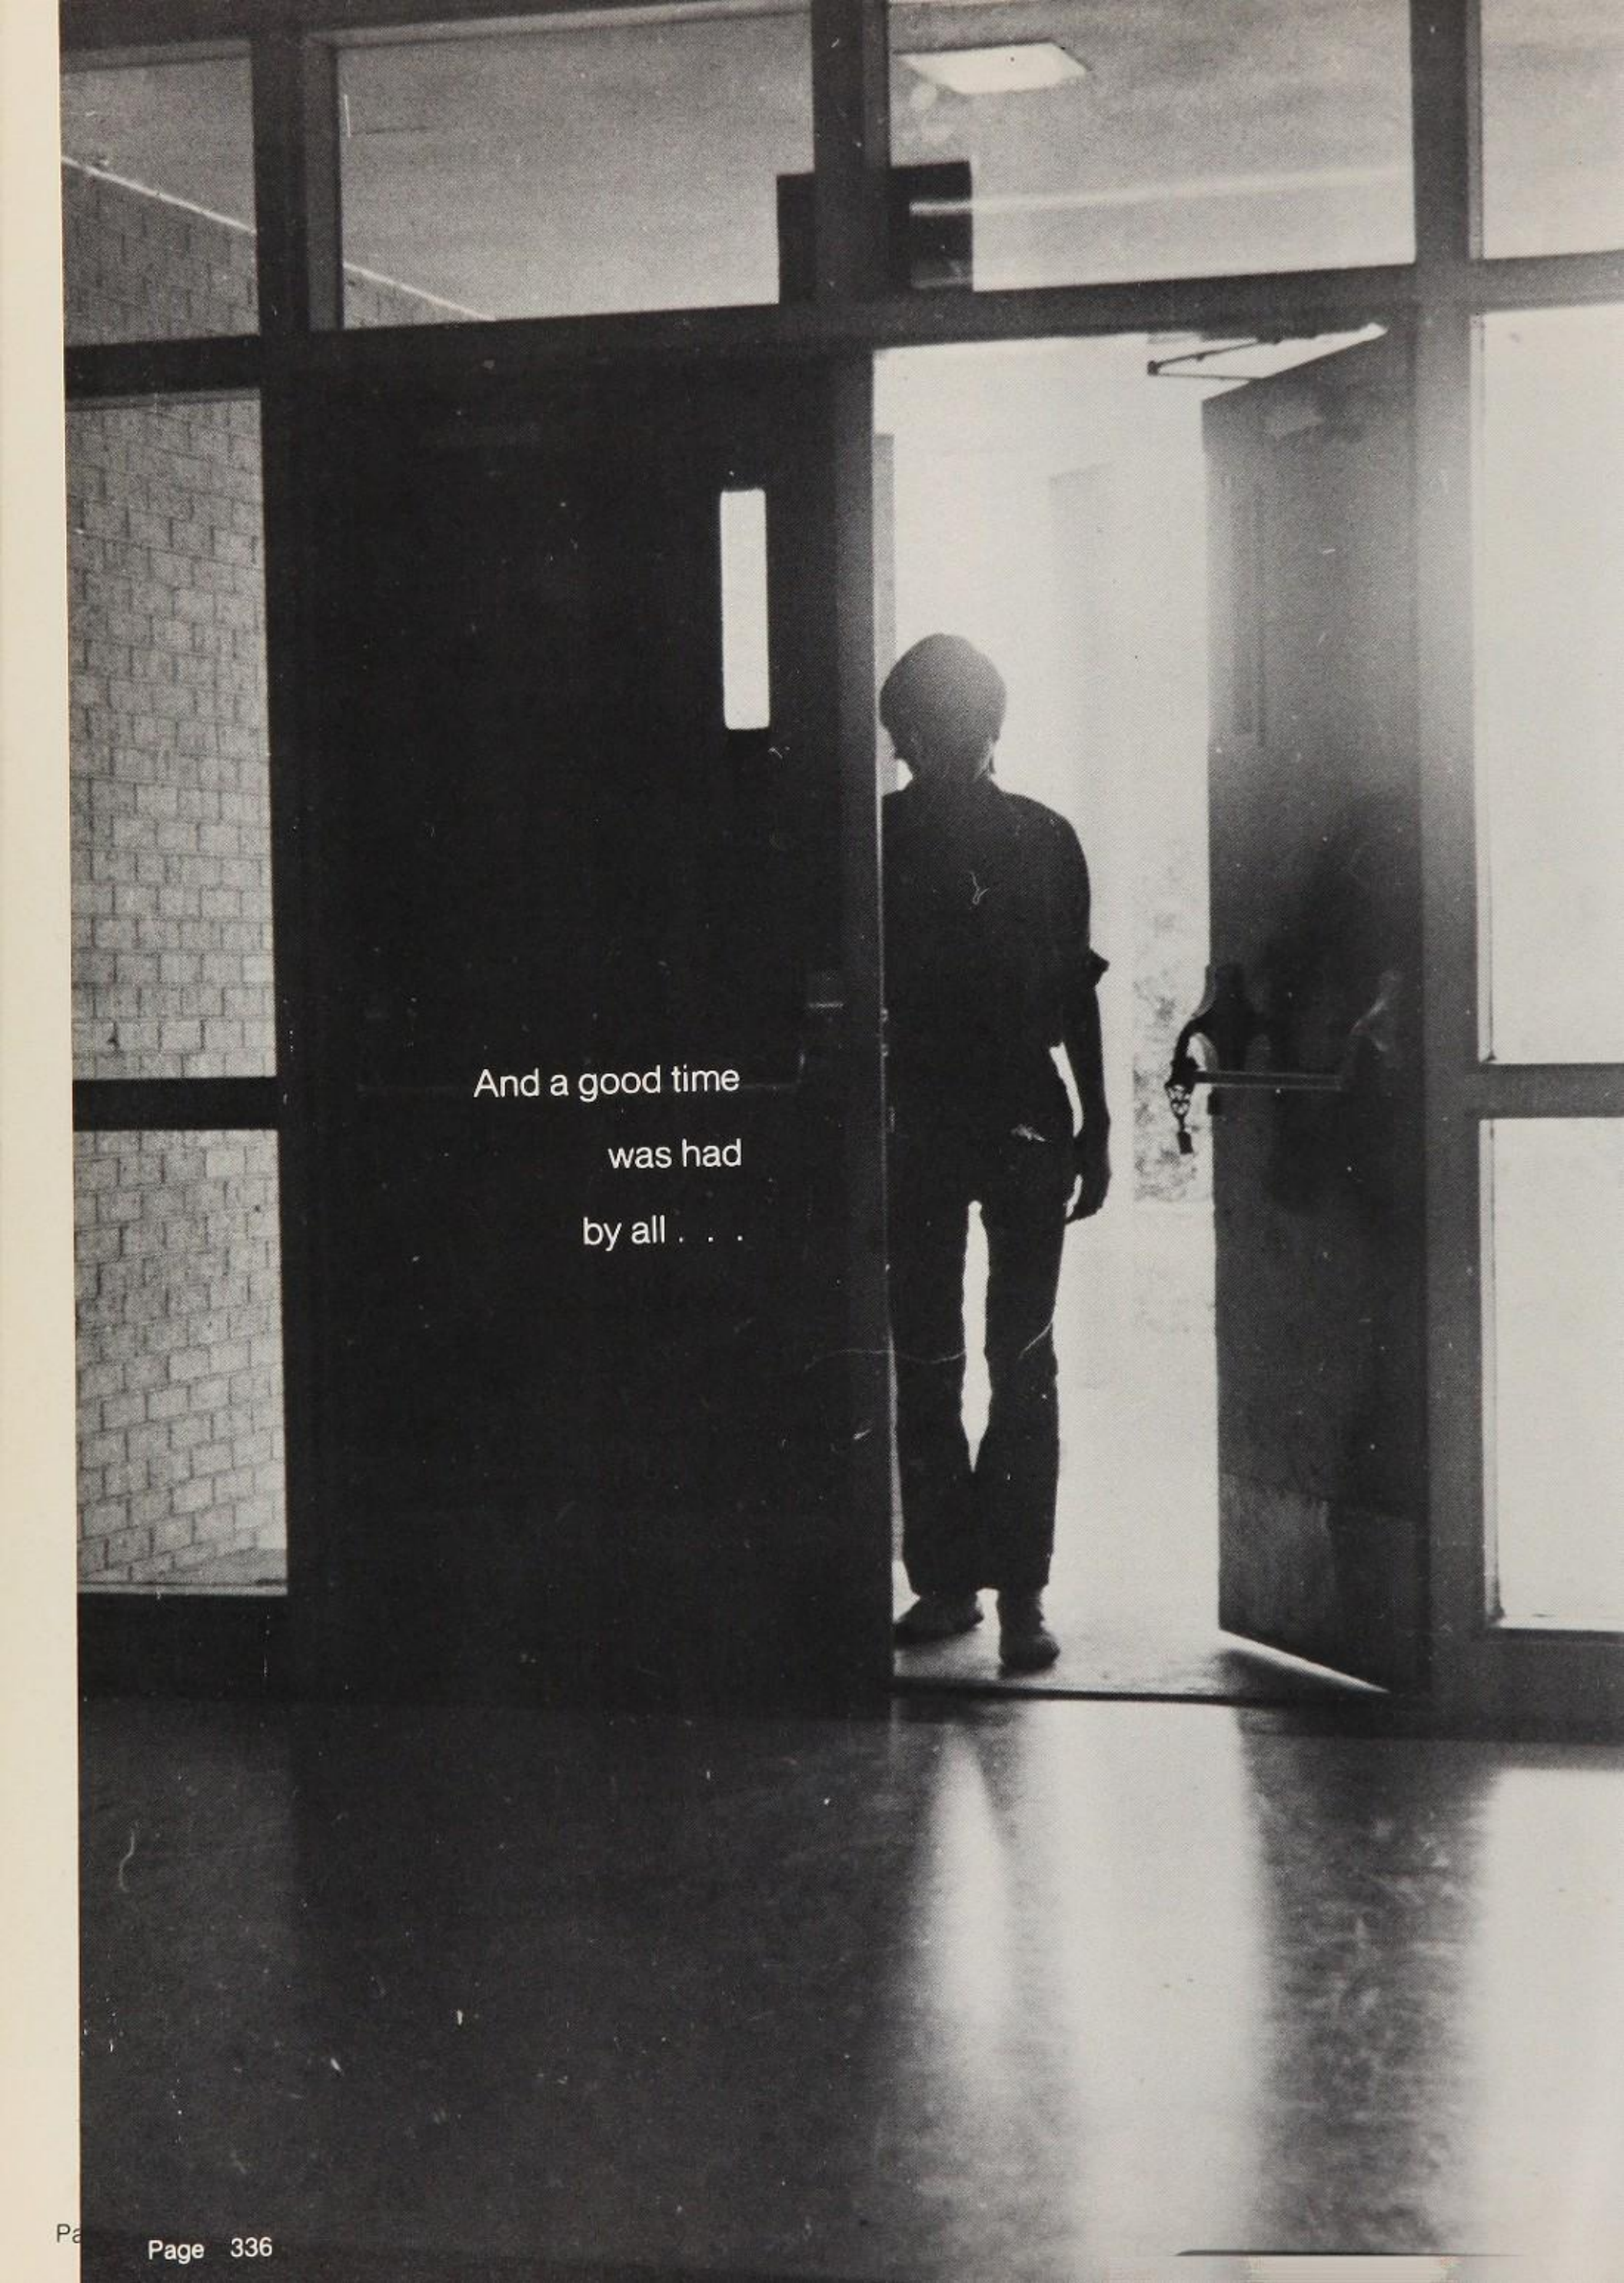

▲ Take my care away! Cyndi Caraway.

▲ Well sugar, you applied for a transfer! YB and Cynthia.
